FLOWERS

Flowers, exquisite and profuse, enough to satisfy the aesthetic senses, grace the tables of the flower display. Dahlias, gladioli, astors, sweet peas, potted plants, bewilder with their profusion of color and scent. One entry of dahlias contains seventy-three different varieties. Another interesting dahlia exhibit is of flowers grown from imported seeds planted this spring in a hot bed. That yards of Ontario need not be lacking in these beautiful ornaments is evidenced by this very lovely display.
